

Visit at the Chikupi educational project.

On the 19 April 2012, the Italian Ambassador visited Chikupi educational project, which provides, together with EU funding, basic education within a vast rural area. At the same time, the project is developing small rural activities with the aim to making the centre self sustainable.

