

TOUR OF THE WESTERN PROVINCE

The Italian Ambassador, along with the German and Finnish colleagues, in April visited the Western Province. This enabled them to make contact with the local authorities and to collect assessments and experiences of aid workers, religious and members of the civil society.

The trip offered an opportunity to further explore the initiatives of the Italian NGO Celim, present for years in the area and currently engaged in two important and valued projects on biodiversity and environmental protection and waste management.

To know more www.celim.it

