

Concerts

On the 20th and 22nd of June, the Circolo Italiano of Lusaka, in collaboration with the Embassy of Italy, organised two concerts in the premises of the newly renovated Circolo Italiano of Lusaka.

On the first evening, Eliana Morretti (piano) and Sofia Kortelain (violin), both musicians of the Vienna Conservatory, performed a repertoire of classic pieces. On the second night, there was a repertoire of modern music with the participation of Kevin Renard Sagau at the guitar.

Both evenings were attended by some 140 spectators, who at the end of the concert were able to enjoy some Italian specialties.

Congratulations on the excellent quality of the concerts also came from the Zambian Music Society.
